SUBJECT: 2021-2022 OUTSTANDING SERVICE AWARD

OUTSTANDING SERVICE AWARD

Enclosed you will find the application and rules for submitting a member of your unit for the consideration as the (2022) Outstanding Service Award Recipient. This is a secular honor the National CWVA can bestow upon a member. All units have members who are very deserving of this recognition. Maybe it is a member who is active now or one who was once very dedicated to our CWVA motto GOD, COUNTRY AND HOME.

Please send three copies of everything.

Your entry must be mailed to me at the address below and postmarked by April 1, 2022. The Committee will meet at the May Board meeting.

We hope to see you and some of your members at the National Convention.

This is a secular award an auxiliary member can receive from the National Catholic War Veterans Auxiliary. The nominee should be a member of the CWVA organization for a period of at least three years and who is an asset to the organization and to the community and is living proof of our motto: For God, Country and Home.

Following are the rules and application for entry. The winner's application will be kept on file by the National Office and all other applications will be returned to the nominator. All entries are strictly confidential.

The award will be presented at the CWVA National Convention.

RULES FOR APPLICATION AND RESUME REQUIREMENT

1. Recipient must be an auxiliary member, in good standing for a period of three consecutive years.
2. The entry must be submitted by the nominating Echelon President.
3. Only one (1) entry can be submitted each year from an Auxiliary Echelon. The award can be given only once to a member. When name is submitted, and they are not chosen, that name can be resubmitted again the following year.
4. All entries must be postmarked no later than April 1, 2022.
5. The recipient should be chosen for services to the affairs of the organization, and for services to the community.
6. Entries must be endorsed by the Unit President and Department President or Department Representative appointed to National Board. (If the Unit Board of officers were to submit the name of the current President, the unit secretary would sign the form.)
7. Remember to do a write-up on your candidate- tell us who he or she is, what he or she has done for all levels of CWVA, offices he or she has held, charity work and community work, just a story all about him or her.
